"Cleanse the mirrors of your hearts from the dross of the world and all that is therein, that they may reflect the resplendent light of love. (Baha'u'llah, The Summons of the Lord of Hosts)

A day of exploration looking at yourself, how its influences your mediumship and how to offer the full gift of your mind body and soul to the spirit world.

Come and utilise all the wonder that you & bring it to your mediumship.

We will be doing this though, meditations, theory, practicums, and reflection

The workshop will be tailored to the needs and level of expertise of those present.
Please bring your own packed lunch and soft drink
