The Life and Times of Ivy Northage
A tribute on the 15th Anniversary of passing

10th July 1909 – 31st March 2002

“The less of me, the more of spirit, the better medium I will become.” Ivy Northage, 1986, Mediumship Made Simple, Psychic Press Ltd.

Talk includes:

- How did Ivy’s early years develop her independence and self-reliance?
- Who rescued Ivy after her brother, Harry, led her into a nearly fatal escapade?
- What led Ivy and her husband, Stanley, to help a single Mother and stop the authorities from sending her to the workhouse?
- How did Ivy’s guide Chan, enter Ivy and Stanley’s life, and give instructions for her development.
- Where and what happened when Ivy attended a demonstration of clairvoyance by Estelle Roberts and subsequently, what did Ivy promise Chan?
- Why was Ivy surprised about her first platform demonstration of clairvoyance at Walthamstow, in October 1938 and who invited Ivy to work at the Spiritualist Association of Great Britain?
- When did Ivy meet Paul Beard, the son of one of the founders of The London Spiritual Mission and as President of the College of Psychic Studies, what did he invite her to do?
- Extracts from Chan’s trance talks.
